Summary/Abstract (250 word maximum)	AAOF Faculty Development Fellowship has enabled me to advance my professional education and improve my skills in teaching and research as an Orthodontic Faculty member of the Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry. My teaching experience during the past year includes academic and clinical instructions in both the orthodontic residency program and the pre-doctoral dental student curriculum. I have actively involved in a number of investigations. I am first-author of the third paper in the series of “facial attractiveness” study involving the ranking of end-of-treatment photos of 90 orthodontic patients by 45 Chinese and US orthodontists. It has been accepted in March, 2009 and currently in press in the AJODO. I am co-author of two previous facial attractiveness papers which published in AJODO. I have supervised ongoing clinical studies in the post-graduate mixed dentition clinic and participated in early treatment study randomly sampled from three experts’ orthodontic practices. I have also attended numerous meetings and educational courses offered by AAO, PCSO, IADR, and the Angle Society.
